

Dear Sir:

There is absolutely NO REASON for the banking system to have the freedom to call -and BOTHER ME--at my private residence.

Our Indiana law RESTRICTING UNWANTED SOLICITATIONS has been wanted by the majority of our state citizens. We deserve the right to our privacy and to decide who we want to spend our time communicating with.